

Image not found or type unknown

Norwegian language and civilization for international students (NIS)

Image not found or type unknown

The regular application deadlines are: March 1st: Applicants with citizenship and education from visa-required countries. April 15th: Applicants residing in Norway with a Norwegian ID number and citizens of EU/EEA countries. Follow this link to find out more about admission. Tuition fees for non-EU/EEA students: read more here.

Studieinnhald

The emphasis of this study is on giving students good general capabilities in Norwegian language. The programme is also meant to make it easier for students to adapt to the Norwegian society. The study of Norwegian culture and civilization aims to give students the general overview they need when they begin their vocational studies. It is also meant to provide an insight into Norwegian social structures and the living conditions of Norwegians. Upon completion, students will reach a Norwegian language proficiency equivalent to the B2-level (CEFR).

Undervisningsmåtar og vurderingsordningar

This program is a full time study over two semesters. The study concentrates on two subject areas: Norwegian language and Norwegian civilization. The main emphasis is on Norwegian language, especially practical language skills. Teaching in civilization and culture has text reading as its basis, and is to the greatest possible extent coordinated with the teaching in Norwegian language. Teaching comprises from 10-14 periods per week each term. Attendance is obligatory. Students with less than 80 % attendance will not be allowed to sit for the exams.

Aktuelle yrke og vidare studium

Studiepoeng / lengd: /

Opptakskrav: To be accepted for the course, applicants must satisfy the general entrance requirements for Norwegian colleges. For applicants from some countries 1 - 2 years of university studies will be required. Applicants must meet English language requirement. Knowledge of Norwegian language is not required at the entrance stage.

Søknadsfrist: i

Studiestart:

Kontaktperson: For spørsmål om opptak
Studentservice +47 70 07 50 18
studentsorvis@hivolda.no