

E-books from Ebook Central:

Highlight text, add comments, bookshelf, print, download

Use your Feide login to get access. This is required whether you are on or off campus. Once you're logged in you won't have to keep logging in to look at other books on the platform.

Once you've logged in to Ebook Central, you will be able to use the e-books in different ways. You can read them on your screen (Read Online), save a copy of the whole book (Download Book) or individual chapters (Download PDF Chapter).

The screenshot shows the Ebook Central interface for the book "English Grammar Essentials for Dummies - Australia" by Wendy M. Anderson, Geraldine Woods, and Lesley J. Ward. On the left is a vertical sidebar with a book cover image and several action buttons: "Read Online", "Download Book", "Add to Bookshelf", "Share Link to Book", and "Cite Book". The main content area on the right features the book title and authors at the top. Below this is an "Availability" section stating "Your institution has unlimited access to this book." It lists three options: "Read Online", "Download Book" (with a note about third-party software and a 21-day limit), and "Download PDF Chapter" (with a note about 39 pages and no expiration). To the right of these options are two boxes indicating page counts: "10 pages remaining for copy (of 10)" and "39 pages remaining for PDF print/chapter download (of 39)". A "Description" section follows, starting with "The fun and easy way to learn essential grammar rules..." and ending with a "Show more" link. Below the description is a "Table of Contents" section for "English Grammar Essentials For Dummies" (pp Intro-180; 194 pages), with a "Show Subsections" link. At the bottom right of the table of contents, there are links for "Download PDF What can I do?" and "Read Online".

Using E-books/Personal User

As a personal user you can create your own Bookshelf where you can highlight text, add bookmarks and comments to e-books. On the start page, click Sign In (top right corner). You will be automatically logged in since you already used your Feide login.

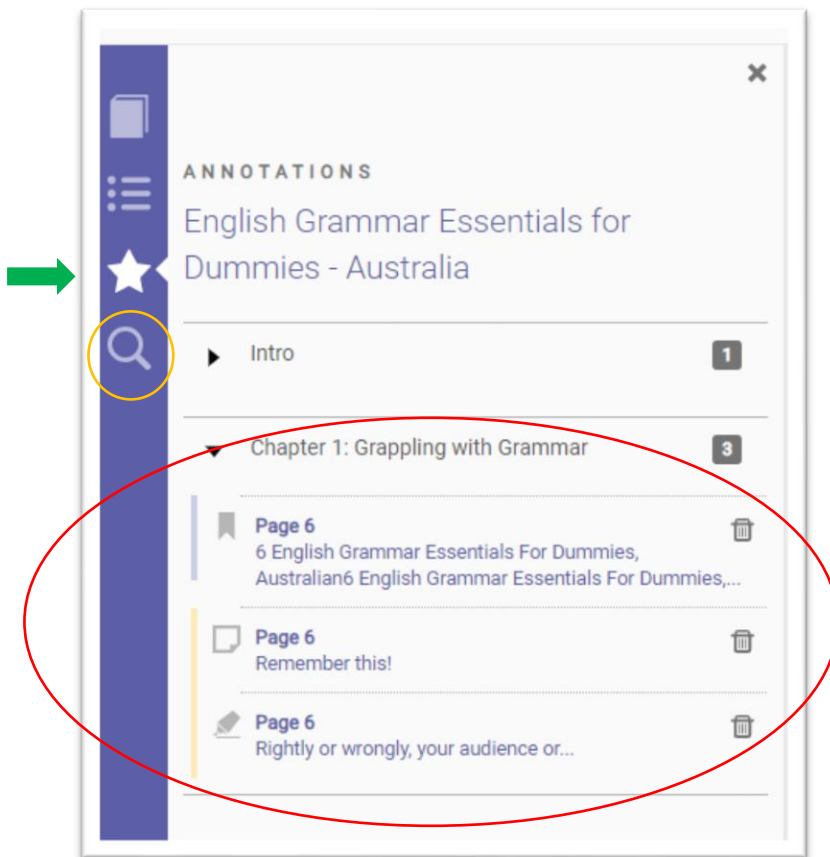

Read Online: The e-book will open in the same window and you will be able to use the Tools menu at the top of the e-book to make mark-ups. You can use the left side menu to navigate through chapters and search within the book.

Tools menu:

Bookshelf: Any e-books you open will be automatically saved here. It will also save any mark-ups (Annotations) you make in the e-book.

You can find your mark-ups in the left side menu when you open the e-book (star):

To search within the book (words/phrases), click on the magnifying glass icon, also in the left side menu (see screenshot above).

Print

It is not permitted to print out the entire book, but you can print out a limited number of pages. This will vary from book to book, but you will see the maximum number of pages allowed by clicking on  (Print to PDF).
